

Related Info

Outlet name

The Meeting Professional

Article date

July 2007

Circulation

30,000

Outlet specs

Monthly trade publication that is the official association magazine of Meeting Professionals International

University Introduces Meetings Industry Degree

Central Michigan University has initiated a new events management minor, approved March 27 by the school's academic senate and scheduled for implementation this fall. Students will learn about food and food service, lodging operations, commercial recreation, meeting and exposition planning and special events administration. Electives will cover public relations, fund raising, tourism, recreation facility operations, food and beverage management and liability and risk management. •